The Bill as passed by the Houses of Parliament received the assent of the President on 3rd Sep. 2001.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Chhattisgarh,
MAHENDRA RATHOR, Deputy Secretary.

THE INDIAN COUNCIL OF WORLD AFFAIRS ACT, 2001

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

Sections

THE INDIAN COUNCIL OF WORLD AFFAIRS ACT, 2001

An Act to declare the Indian Council of World Affairs to be an institution of national importance and to provide for its incorporation and matters connected therewith.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fifty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Council of World Affairs Act, 2001.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, it shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of September, 2000.

Declaration of the Indian Council of World Affairs as institution of national importance.

2. Whereas the objects of the Indian Council of World Affairs, a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860) are such as to make the institution one of national importance, it is hereby declared that the institution, known as the Indian Council of World Affairs, is an institution of national importance.

Definitions.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(5) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, the Council may appoint such number of other officers and employees as may be necessary for the exercise of its powers and efficient discharge of its functions and may determine the designations and grades of such other officers and employees.

(6) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, the Director-General and other officers and employees of the Council shall be entitled to such salary and allowances and shall be governed by such conditions of service in respect of leave, pension, gratuity, provident fund and other matters, as may be prescribed by regulations made in this behalf.

Functions of Council.

16. The Council shall undertake various plans to promote, organise and implement various programmes for efficiently achieving the objects of the Council specified in section 13 and shall also perform such other functions as the Central Government may, by rules, prescribe.

Payment to Council.

17. The Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Council in each financial year such sums as may be considered necessary for the exercise of powers and efficient discharge of functions of the Council under this Act.

Fund of Council.

18. (1) The Council shall maintain a Fund to which shall be credited to—

(a) all moneys received from the Central Government;

(b) all moneys received by the Council by way of grants, gifts, donations, benefactions, bequests or transfers; and

(c) all moneys received by the Council in any other manner or from any other source.

(2) All moneys credited to the Fund shall be deposited in such banks or invested in such manner as the Council may, subject to the approval of the Central Government, decide.

(3) The Fund shall be applied towards meeting the administrative and other expenses of the Council, including expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its functions under section 16 or in relation to any of the activities referred to therein or for anything relatable thereto.

Budget Council.

19. The Council shall prepare, in such form and at such time every year, as may be prescribed by rules, a budget in respect of the financial year next ensuing, showing the estimated receipts and expenditure of the Council and shall forward to the Central Government such number of copies thereof as may be prescribed by rules.

Accounts and audit.

20. (1) The Council shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts including the balance-sheet in such form as the Central Government may, by rules, prescribe and in accordance with such general directions as may be issued by that Government, in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The accounts of the Council shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Council to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Council shall have the same rights, privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India has in connection with the audit of the Government accounts and, in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect the office or offices of the Council.

(4) The accounts of the Council as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf, together with the audit report thereon, shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament.

Annual report.

21. The Council shall prepare every year, in such form and at such time as may be prescribed by rules, an annual report giving a true and full account of its activities during the previous year and copies thereof shall be forwarded to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament.

Authentication of orders and instruments of Council.

22. All orders and decisions of the Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the President or the Vice-President and all other instruments issued by the Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the Director-General or any other officer of the Council authorised by the Council in this behalf.

Vacancy, etc., not to invalidate proceedings of the Council.

23. No act or proceeding of the Council, Governing Body or any standing or ad hoc committee under this Act shall be invalid merely by reason of—

(a) any vacancy in, or any defect in the constitution of, the Council; or

(b) any defect in the appointment of a person acting as a member of the Council; or

(c) any irregularity in the procedure of the Council not affecting the merits of the case.

Reports, returns and information.

24. The Council shall furnish to the Central Government such reports, returns and other information as that Government may require from time to time.

Power to make rules.

25. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the manner of filling vacancies among members under sub-section (7) of section 8;

(b) the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the President and the Vice-Presidents under sections 9 and 10, as the case may be;

(c) the allowances to be paid to the members under section 11;

(d) the control and restrictions in relation to the constitution of standing and ad hoc committees under sub-section (5) of section 14;

(e) the number of other officers and employees that may be appointed by the Council and the manner of such appointment under sub-section (5) of section 15;

(f) the salaries and allowances payable to the Director-General and other officers and employees of the Council under sub-section (6) of section 15;

(g) such other functions to be performed by the Council under section 16;

(h) the form in which and the time at which the budget shall be prepared by the Council and the number of copies thereof to be forwarded to the Central Government under section 19;

(i) the form in which an annual statement of accounts including the balance-sheet shall be prepared by the Council under sub-section (1) of section 20;

(j) the form in which and the time at winch the annual report of the activities of the Council shall be submitted to the Central Government under section 21;

(k) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed by rules.

Power to make regulations.

26. (1) The Council may make regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the summoning and holding of meetings, other than the first meeting of the Council, the time and place where such meetings are to be held and the transaction of business at such meetings under section 12;

(b) the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the Governing Body and the Chairperson under sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 14;

(c) the procedure to be followed by the Governing Body in exercise of its powers and discharge of its functions and the term of office of, and the manner of filling vacancies among, the members of the Governing Body under sub-section (4) of section 14;

(d) the allowances to be paid to the Chairperson and members of the Governing Body, standing and ad hoc committees under sub-section (6) of section 14;

(e) the powers and functions to be exercised and discharged by the Director-General under sub-section (3) of section 15;

(f) the conditions of service of the Director-General and other officers and employees of the Council under sub-section (6) of section 15;

(g) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed by regulations.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the first regulations under this Act shall be made by the Governing Body and any regulations so made may be altered or rescinded by the Council in exercise of its powers under sub-section (1).

Rules and regulations to be laid before Parliament.

27. Every rule and every regulation made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or regulation or both Houses agree that the rule or regulation should not be made, the rule or regulation shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation.

Power to remove difficulties.

28. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to be necessary for removing the difficulty :

Provided that no order shall be made under this section after the expiry of two years from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

Repeal and saving.

29. (1) The Indian Council of World Affairs (Second) Ordinance, 2001 is hereby repealed. Ord. 3 of 2001.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the said Ordinance, anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Raipur, the 6th December 2004

No. 7152/21-A (Dr).– The following Act of the Parliament , published in the Gazette of India Extra-ordinary, Part -II, Section I, The Repealing and Amending Act, 2001 (Act No. 30 of 2001) is hereby republished for general information.
